

Research Guide to AccessUN (UN Documents)

AccessUN

This database is available to all library users on the premises of the DuFour Law Library (<http://lib.law.cua.edu/pages/online.html>). It is available off-campus to CUA Law faculty, staff, and students. You must provide a valid patron name and barcode number to access this database off-campus.

Coverage: AccessUN is the premier index to United Nations documents. The database includes UN official records, UN Treaty Series citations, draft resolutions, meeting records, masterhead documents, and UN Sales Publications. Un Access is primarily a bibliographic citation database, however, the database also includes the full-text of several thousand UN documents, including full-text resolutions from the General Assembly, Security Council, and the Economic and Social Council. Full-text documents are also included for UN documents on major international crisis's including Timor, Kosovo, and Afghanistan.

Years Indexed: 1966-Present.

Purpose: AccessUN provides access to the DuFour Law Library microfiche and paper selective collection of United Nations documents.
