The Academic Excellence Committee is developing a bibliography of materials related to teaching in and evaluation of the law school curriculum. To further this effort, we seek the input of our colleagues to recommend books, articles, and other materials on these topics. If you have favorite resources to recommend, please forward the titles to Sandy Ogilvy. To stimulate your thinking, here is a list of materials recommended by members of the Committee.

PLEASE NOTE:
- Books are available on reserve in the Law Library.
- Articles that are available online have hyperlinks (article titles are underlined and in blue). Click on the link to connect directly to the article.
